A professional community for the leader behind the role

Complementing your sector associations, ACHSM focuses on you as a leader – your capability, professional recognition, career and connections. Connect beyond your sector with leaders across health, aged care, disability and community services.

Your Leadership Journey

ACHSM supports your leadership throughout your career – helping you understand your capability, develop and apply new skills, gain professional recognition and, as your career grows, contribute back to the profession.

Networking and Events

Connect with managers and leaders across health and social care to exchange ideas, learn from shared experience and build relationships beyond your organisation.

Through webcasts, breakfast forums, workshops, special interest groups, conferences and Congress, you'll gain practical insights and a network to support you in your role.

ACHSM's Annual Asia-Pacific Health Leadership Congress

ACHSM Congress is Australasia's premier gathering of healthcare leaders and decision-makers – bringing together hundreds of leaders from Australia and the Asia-Pacific, with special member pricing.

Ongoing professional development

ACHSM's commitment to advancing excellence in health and social care leadership is the cornerstone of membership ensuring you stay current with the latest trends, skills, and leadership practices in health management, supporting both your personal career progression and system-wide improvement.

The job asks a lot of you. Your professional community should help you keep growing.

Supporting your career from as little as $315, ACHSM membership is one of the most valuable investments you can make in your professional journey.
